BLAYE-CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

Chateau La Gamaye

With 5 acres the 1920s, the vineyard was developed to 50 acres. Franck Bourceau found, over time and acquisitions, the balance between traditional know-how and modernity. The estate is composed today of 3 different Chateaux divided on 3 appellation, Chateau La Gamaye (Blaye Cotes de Bordeaux), Chateau Haut Mangaud (Cotes de Bourg), and Chateau Terrier des Cailloux (Bordeaux) and propose subtle wines, all classified in AOC.

CÔTES DE CASTILLON

Domaine de l'Aurage

L'Aurage was created with the 2007 vintage, a new property owned and run by Louis Mitjavile. Louis, hugely talented, had learned his trade whilst working for his father François Mitjavile, the iconic trailblazer at Tertre Roteboeuf in St Emilion and Roc de Cambes in the Côtes de Bourg. Louis had forged a remarkable reputation in his own right, consulting widely, before he acquired this fabulous estate in the Côtes de Castillon, an appellation which borders St Emilion and enjoys the same clay/limestone soil as its esteemed neighbour. Louis wants to see opulence in his wines, rather than concentration, with balance being the overall objective. Domaine de l'Aurage is a tremendous ambassador for the Côtes de Castillon appellation, sumptuous, elegant and long.

CÔTES DE BOURG

Roc de Cambes

Roc de Cambes is a jewel owned by François Mitjavile, highly renowned for Tertre Roteboeuf Grand Cru in St Emilion. This is his property in the Côtes de Bourg, a vineyard reminiscent of Tertre Roteboeuf, being as it is, a natural amphitheatre with a perfect aspect overlooking the Gironde River. It comprises fourteen hectares of old vines planted on the most highly reputed slope of the Côtes (les Croutes), where the heat of the sun on the slope is regulated by the effects of the estuary and cool clay/limestone soils. This makes for regular growth and wonderfully ripe, concentrated fruit.

SAINT-ÉMILION

Tertre Roteboeuf

The incredible Tertre Roteboeuf property lies 2km south-east of St Emilion. A scant 6 hectares in size, Tertre Roteboeuf's rise to fame from virtual obscurity has been meteoric. This turnaround was spearheaded by a unique individual, one François Mitjavile, aided and abetted by his wife Miloute, his son and daughter Louis and Nina. The result is now undisputedly regarded as one of Saint Emilion's greatest wines.

CHABLIS

Domaine Vincent Damp

Vincent is the son of Daniel Damp and grandson of Jean Defaix, both admired Chablis producers. Respectful of family tradition, Vincent is nonetheless determined to build his own reputation. Vincent is fiercely passionate about wine and the Chablis terroir, yet open to new ideas and methods in his pursuit of quality. Ever focused, Vincent enrolled himself in winemaking school aged just 14, then worked in France, notably with Olivier Leflaive in Burgundy, before heading to New Zealand's Marlborough region, an experience he calls mind expanding. Vincent's vines are planted on Chablis' quintessential Kimmeridgian soils. Now in his second decade of winemaking, Vincent owns two hectares of prime Chablis and Chablis 1er Cru vineyards around the village of Milly, some with 55 year-old vines. Styled to give pleasure, Vincent Damp's steely, mineral wines are classic Chablis with the classic crushed shell profile of the appellation.

Domaine Christophe et Fils

Sebastien Christophe is a superstar in Chablis. He started his domaine with a small half hectare parcel of Petit Chablis from his family and made a run for it. After winemaking school he started to vinify this tiny parcel and has slowly acquired small parcels of village vineyards and a lot of Petit Chablis land. He also rents parcels that he farms entirely himself. Today, he has three premier crus on the right bank of the Serein river, Fourchaume, Mont de Milieu and Montée de Tonnerre.

"Sebastien Christophe's discreetly situated domaine, located outside the village of Fyé, is fast emerging as a fine source of pure, racy Chablis..." - William Kelley, Wine Advocate.

Domaine des Varoilles

The arrival of Gilbert Hammel in 1990 marked a turning point for the Domaine. Gilbert, of Swiss descent, has made Domaine des Varoilles a go-to producer of a succulent, rounded and supremely approachable style of Gevrey-Chambertin. The Varoilles holdings include two very special premiers crus monopoles, La Romanée and Clos des Varoilles. monopole indicating that the vineyards are in the sole property of the Domaine. In fact, the name Domaine des Varoilles comes, originally, from a premier cru monopole first planted in the 12th century. Domaine des Varoilles combines a number of spectacular vineyards from village to grand cru level.

The Chéron and Hammel families were joint owners of Domaine des Varoilles, in Gevrey-Chambertin. In 2020, following the retirement of Gilbert Hammel, the majority of the Domaine des Varoilles holdings was absorbed into Philippe Chéron's Domaine du Couvent. The wines are therefore now labelled as Domaine du Couvent. Philippe Chéron, the man who now oversees Domaine du Couvent, whose father had worked in the Varoilles vines since the 1970s, so there is clearly good knowledge of the terroirs within the family.

Château de la Tour

Château de la Tour, established in 1890, is the largest proprietor of the Clos de Vougeot, with around five and a half hectares of vines. The Labet family's holdings comprise, essentially, two parcels, one close to the château itself, with another smaller holding (relatively recently replanted) higher on the slope, bordering Les Échézeaux. The vines have an average age of 67 years, with a one hectare plot planted in 1910 at their heart. The Domaine has been organic since 1992, François assiduous in ensuring the very best possible harvest, preferring strict pruning to later green harvesting. He is also a fan of whole clusters, naturally fermented which make for particularly characterful wines, when allowed to age.

Domaine Gilles Jourdan

Gilles Jourdan established his eponymous domaine in 1998, having looked after the family holdings since 1970, whilst making wine at Bichot in Beaune. The domaine's cellar is located in the quiet village of Corgoloin, on the eastern side of the Route Nationale. There are just five hectares, including a monopole, La Robignotte, which is a blue marl slope, adjacent to the small track which winds its way up into the Hautes-Côtes. Gilles has 40 pickers to call upon at harvest. He tends to harvest later than his neighbours, as demanded by his older, low production vines.

Domaine Pierre Labet

François Labet inherited this domaine from his father. This family domaine has its roots in 15th century Beaune, when it had an administrative centre at Bastion Notre-Dame, part of the city ramparts. François Labet's grandfather was mayor of Beaune between the two world wars. During this period, the holdings were expanded beyond Beaune. Now, the domaine owns ten hectares of vineyards in Beaune, Savigny-lès-Beaune, Chorey-lès-Beaune, Meursault and Gevrey-Chambertin. François started making wine in 1984, in the 1987 vintage changing from 100% destemming to 100% whole bunch handling.

Domaine Marquis d'Angerville

With eight premier cru vineyards – an impressive and enviable portfolio, the domaine is today overseen by Guillaume D'Angerville, following the death of his father Jacques in 2003. Guillaume heads a team which includes his brother-in-law, Renaud de Villette, who had worked alongside Jacques for a number of years, and François Duvivier, in the vineyard and cellar. Renaud, François and Guillaume are acutely aware of their responsibility to these great terroirs.

After years of research and experimentation, the Domaine is now fully biodynamic. In the most simplistic terms, biodynamic viticulture embraces cosmic rhythms, philosophy and metaphysics as much as agricultural disciplines. It encourages a complex variety of species which make for living, breathing soils and healthier, disease-resistant vines. With responsibility for some of the best of Volnay, meticulous care is fundamental to the Domaine's philosophy and this is reflected in the finished wines. This is a complex estate with the highest rated vineyard being Volnay 1er Cru Clos des Ducs, monopole essentially the garden of main house.

Domaine Pierre Morey

We knew Pierre Morey during his two decades as Régisseur of Domaine Leflaive, from 1988 to 2008. He combined this high profile position with running the eponymous family domaine in Meursault. It is no coincidence that certain milestones at Domaine Leflaive, such as turning biodynamic in 1997, were echoed at Domaine Pierre Morey. Domaine Pierre Morey's ten hectares span the villages of Monthelie, Pommard, Puligny-Montrachet and Meursault, where the domaine is based.

Pierre and his daughter Anne Morey now co-manage the domaine. Pierre remains a constant presence here but it is now his daughter, Anne Morey, who runs the domaine and its associated négociant operation, Morey-Blanc. Anne's son, Jean-Victor Morey, joined the estate in the 2020 vintage. There are now therefore three generations to, in Anne's words, "together watch over the vines and the wines."

Domaine Leflaive

The Domaine dates back to 1717, with founder Joseph Leflaive but recent history owes a tremendous debt to his grand-daughter Anne-Claude Leflaive, who was manager from 1994 until her untimely death in 2015. Brice is Anne-Claude's nephew and great grandson of Joseph. Domaine Leflaive is a standard bearer for Anne-Claude's passionately held views on biodynamic cultivation. This philosophy has, at its heart, the individual treatment of vines by plant-based compounds, according to a strict timetable governed by the lunar cycle, allied to a total ban on systemic chemical treatments and insecticides.

Biodynamic experiments at Domaine Leflaive started in the early nineties with the disciplines being fully endorsed from 1997. There were remarkable quality improvements in the finished wines – a welcome, unintended and totally unexpected bonus. The Domaine epitomises classic Puligny style, the wines having exemplary purity, focus and integrity. With the Meursault, they are true to their origins.

Domaine François Carillon

François Carillon began working with his father Louis Carillon in 1988. Fascinated, from the outset, by the vines and their environment, the vineyard became François' main focus and remains paramount today, providing optimal ingredients in the cellar. A viticulturalist of the highest quality, he believes passionately that the quality of wine is determined in the vineyard.

The 6.5 hectares currently in production are farmed to lutte intégrée principles; that is organically, but with the option to treat the vines if the circumstances demand it. The estate currently spans Chassagne-Montrachet Premiers Crus, Puligny Premiers Crus Village Puligny Montrachet and generic Bourgogne. François dismisses his work in the cellar as "traditional" – it's impeccable, the use of oak perfectly balanced.

Domaine Labruyère is the oldest estate in Moulin-à-Vent, dating back to 1850. The original ten hectares have been added to over the years. The most significant acquisition was that of Le Clos du Moulin-à-Vent, the appellation's only monopole, situated beside the iconic windmill.

Since 2008, the property has been run by Edouard Labruyère, the seventh generation. Edouard grew up here and now works alongside winemaker Nadine Gublin and cellar master Michel Rovere.

Five wines make up the core of the domaine: Bourgogne Gamay, Coeur de Terroir, Champ de Cour, Le Carquelin and Le Clos du Moulin-à-Vent.

RHÔNE

Domaine Gourt de Mautens

Several generations of Jérôme Bressy's family had cultivated vines here but sold their grapes to the local cooperative. In 1989, Jérôme's father Yves made a life-changing step, converting his vineyard holdings to organic farming - a massive investment given that he would continue selling to the co-op, with no premium. His extraordinary prescience delivered a healthy, balanced vineyard to Jérôme, the first member of this family of viticulturists to study winemaking.

The winery is now certified organic and biodynamic. Jérôme is very particular about his wines' style and, with changes to the appellation laws, his vision was at odds with the prescribed varieties allowed. Faced with turning his back on his own style or accepting he could not have Rasteau emblazoned on his labels, he elected the latter course. The wines come from within Rasteau but are declassified in order to accommodate his preferred blends.

Tardieu-Laurent

Michel Tardieu is a micro négociant-éleveur, based in Lourmarin, Provence, producing wines from the Northern and Southern Rhone. He and his oenologist son Bastien buy wines in their raw, fermented state. Top quality ingredients are essential and critical to Michel's and Bastien's work is the building of long-term, mutually beneficial relationships with a network of producers, who own specific, top quality parcels, almost always of low-yielding old vines. They know by heart both the vineyards and the specific parcels within, which are of interest to them. The resulting wines generally undergo malolactic fermentation overseen by Michel and Bastien as are both the maturation and the blending. The naturally-restricted volumes result in increased complexity and intensity - world-class wines which thoroughly deserve their international acclaim.

Nervi

The history of Azienda Vitivinicola Nervi dates back more than 100 years. Torre della Castelle, that still stands prominently above the town, was built to guard the vineyards. The Valferana vineyard, more about which below, can be traced back to 1242 in Gattinara's municipal deeds.

A series of seismic events has given the area of Gattinara a unique soil structure. 280 million years ago, volcanic rocks were created when the Valsesia super-volcano erupted. There are currently 28 hectares (ha) under vine, across four plots: Molsino, Valferana, Garavoglie and Casaccie. Pruning and harvesting at all sites is carried out by hand. Enrico Fileppo is the chief oenologist and has been with the winery since 1983. Roberto is now incredibly hands-on here, as one would expect.

Giulia Negri

Young, charming, receptive and brimming with energy, Giulia Negri describes herself as 'Barologirl.'

Giulia is the latest generation to take the reins of a family estate stretching back 150 years. She is keen to forge her own path, whilst observing other producers from around the world, keen to glean knowledge and experiment.

Serradenari, the crest of Barolo, presents views over almost all of Barolo, the vines surrounded by prolific truffle forests. Giulia pays tribute to her beloved Burgundy, planting Chardonnay and Pinot Noir near the forest. Nebbiolo inhabits warmer, sandy soils producing Barolo which Giulia views as a work of art, a "flagship in the winemaking world". Her wines become more polished year on year whilst retaining an innate honesty.

Cecilia Beretta

The Cecilia Beretta estate was founded in the 1980s, just to the east of the famous wine village of Valpolicella. It was named after the 17th century agronomist and poet Count Giuseppe Beretta, who built the beautiful Villa in Mizzole in the heart of the estate, now surrounded by vineyards. The local Pasqua family had owned the surrounding vineyards since the 1940s, but a renewed drive for quality and a concentration on modern oenological technologies became a priority in the 1980s with competition from the 'New World'; traditional winemaking countries like Italy were forced to up their game. Thus the quality-focused Cecilia Beretta winery was born. Today it is Carlo's daughter Cecilia (most appropriately named!) who is global ambassador for the Cecilia Beretta estate and wines.

Tenuta di Biserno

It is impossible to separate the Biserno Estate from the man whose inspiration lies behind it, Marchese Lodovico Antinori, original founder of the Ornellaia estate. Tenuta di Biserno is a 90-hectare estate situated in coastal western Tuscany, hidden amongst the hills of Bibbona in the Upper Maremma. The beautiful sweeping views across to the Tyrrhenian Sea, towards Corsica, are a constant reminder of its moderating coastal influence. The mineral rich soil of the Bibbona vineyards is planted exclusively, at Marchese Lodovico's behest, with well-suited Bordeaux varietals, producing three wines, Il Pino di Biserno, the eponymous Biserno and, very rarely, Lodovico.

Ridolfi

The estate's history traces back to 1290. Three Ridolfi families stem from an ancient Tuscan lineage. One of these – the Ridolfi of Borgo – originated the Sienese branch called “dalla Contrada”. That is the Ridolfi family that gives their name and crest to this estate. The estate was bought in 2011 by Giuseppe Valter Peretti, owner of the Rocchetto estate in Larciano in Chianti, about twenty kilometres south of Pistoia. 2014 Gianni Maccari joined as winemaker after a long time (14 years) working at the esteemed Poggio di Sotto. He is now joined by his son Filippo who has just finished his winemaking and vineyard studies. In 2021 this estate was named by the Gambero Rosso as one of Italy's “up and coming estates”.

Tenuta di Trinoro

Tenuta di Trinoro, in the south of Tuscany, is the brainchild of Andrea Franchetti. In his early years, Andrea had fallen in love with the wines and modus operandi of Bordeaux and there he learned of the importance of terroir. The understanding of Bordeaux which led him to start a vineyard from nothing but scrubby woodland in the Val d'Orcia, Southern Tuscany. There were no access roads and certainly no vines but that all seems to have had little bearing on Andrea's determination to produce wine on this site, from scratch, from Bordeaux varietals, in the main. Andrea knew instinctively that Trinoro would be a fabulous site both in its geographical positioning and in its soil, which is rich in marine deposits and, under his stewardship, so it has proved.

Tenuta di Passopisciaro

Tenuta di Passopisciaro is under the control of Andrea Franchetti, an iconic producer, was first known for his Tuscan wine Tenuta di Trinoro. At Trinoro, he created a vineyard, essentially from scratch, clearing rough woodland terracing and planting it – the entire works. Here, on Etna, his task has been more about resurrection rather than creation, bringing long-since abandoned vineyards back into production and, these vines are planted on the slopes of a very clearly live volcano! This strangely beautiful, totally arresting terroir presents a unique palette of aromatics to the winemaker.

Bodegas Zugober

This family has wine in its blood; Eduardo comes from a long line of winemakers from Jerez, while Maribel's grandparents' vines inspired her viticulture studies in Bordeaux. Their son Manuel is now following in his parent's footsteps to take over the business. The 20 hectares of vineyard parcels are set 340-600m above sea level, in the Rioja Alavesa, one of the key sub-regions of Rioja, known for its quality. Here, the land's altitude mitigates the temperatures in the warm region and imparts elegance and finesse to the wines.

Wwe. Dr.H. Thanisch

Katharina Thanisch had married Dr Hugo Thanisch and they ran the estate together. In 1895, Hugo died, leaving Katharina, with three small children and an estate to run. The name then changed to Wwe. Dr.H. Thanisch. "Wwe" refers to "Witwe", meaning "widow". Under Katharina's tenure Wwe. Dr. H. Thanisch, Erben Thanisch, became one of the founder members of the Association of German Quality Wine Producers (VDP) in 1910. Sofia is the fourth woman to manage the estate. With two daughters, Juliane and Christina, the 12th generation look assured at some point in the future.

The Thanisch vineyard parcels lying along a stretch of the Mosel which is relatively straight, a run of south-facing vineyards of world renown – within Zeltingen, Wehlen, Graach and Bernkastel.

ADELAIDE HILLS

The Lane Vineyards

Set 450m high in the Adelaide Hills in South Australia, this boutique winery is the brainchild of well-known Aussie winemaker John Edwards. His long-held dream was to produce Australian wines with true elegance with the refined structure of Old World classics. The Lane vineyards are often 4 degrees cooler and, crucially, night-time temperatures can be even fresher. John Edwards' son Marty, a viticulturist has been managing The Lane since 2001. He has carried out extensive vineyard mapping to analyse soil types and structures, matching grape varieties to individual plots. Meticulous vineyard husbandry, traditional and modern winemaking techniques, experimentation with yeasts, fine lees and use of old and new French oak all play their part in creating wine quality. There are truly stunning, focused wines from an estate we believe to be one of Australia's future icons.

MCLAREN VALE

Aphelion

Established in 2014, Rob started Aphelion with a dream to hand craft premium wines in McLaren Vale, to showcase the unique environment and the variety of each parcel of fruit. Greek speakers will know that Aphelion means from the sun and this concept is central to Aphelion's winemaking philosophy. The intention is clear – to bottle sunshine.

Today, Rob has fast gained a reputation as “Mr Grenache” and turned this tiny, one-tonne project into one of the hottest brands on the market. Minimal intervention winemaking techniques, allowing the sun's life sustaining force to shine out of the wines.

NEW ZEALAND

MARLBOROUGH

Eradus

Har and Sophie Eradus emigrated from Holland to New Zealand in 1982, and decided to make wine on their retirement, some 20 years later. They looked around, found and bought what was to become the Eradus vineyard. Today there are twelve hectares of mainly Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir vineyards, the most impressive of which are planted on undulating, stony terraces along the Awatere river valley. Closer to the ocean than much of the Marlborough wine region, the Awatere's warm days, cool nights and dry, sunny climate are key to the luminous flavour intensity, elegant minerality and fresh acidities of Eradus' distinctive wines. The Eradus estate is now run by son Michiel, whose affable, easy-going demeanour belies a fierce perfectionist focused on pushing every boundary in pursuit of quality and balance – the Eradus mantra.

CANTERBURY-WAIPARA

Muddy Water

The estate was established in 1993 to create 'a cleaner, purer place where wine isn't made to formula but grown and fermented to best reflect the vineyard and season'. Muddy Water is a direct translation of the Maori place name – Wai (water) Para (sediment). The Waipara wine region boasts ideal grape-growing conditions: drenched in sunlight and protected from cool sea breezes by coastal hills, its warm summers, luminous autumns and distinctive limestone soils give ripe grapes with intense flavours yet fine acidities. As the first certified organic winery in Canterbury, the vineyard and winery alike are run according to biodynamic principles. Muddy Water believe that their wines are a great expression of the region and try to interfere with this as little as possible, aiming to maximise wine quality and long-term sustainability.

Stonestreet Estate Vineyards

Stonestreet Estate Vineyards is the story of a family's vision to defy the limits of California winegrowing. Jess Stonestreet Jackson and Barbara Banke established the estate in 1995, and their son Christopher Jackson and his wife Ariel continue the legacy — and the middle name “Stonestreet” has now been passed from father to son for three generations. Stonestreet is one of the most expansive and multi-faceted mountain vineyards in the world and produces a distinctive collection of single vineyard wines - complex Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.

The Jackson family acts as stewards of the land, caring for the 5,500 acre mountain estate that towers high above the Alexander Valley in the Mayacamas Mountain Range. The geological diversity of the mountain, confers a strong mineral characteristic in the fruit.

MENDOZA

Ruca Malen

Set up in 1998, Ruca Malen is the brainchild of Jean-Pierre Thibaud and Jacques-Louis de Montalembert. Friends and business partners who shared a love of wine and the wine trade, De Montalembert had worked extensively in Burgundy, while Thibaud was for years chairman of Bodegas Chandon in Argentina. Now retired, they have passed the reins to a long-standing team, who continue to uphold their values, producing high-quality still and sparkling wines in Mendoza.

The majority of Ruca Malen's vineyards are located in the Uco Valley's 'golden triangle' and the Luján de Cuyo areas. Planted 800-1,100m above sea level, the vines benefit from high-altitude UV light, held to promote the wines' unique fruit character, colour and structure. At the same time, cool night-time temperatures and a long, warm season prolong the ripening process, preserving fresh acidities and concentrating flavour.
